Supplemental Information

During 2010, it was discovered that the deceased treasurer had been misappropriating funds from the organization for the time period beginning approximately in 2004 up until his death (September, 2010) in the amount of approximately $303,000. The organization, upon discovering the misappropriation, informed the Monmouth County prosecutor's office immediately. An independent forensic CPA firm was engaged and they determined the embezzled amount was $303,166. The prosecutor's office determined unequivocally that the deceased treasurer had acted alone.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 5 - Description of Material Diversion of Assets

During 2010, it was discovered that the deceased treasurer had been misappropriating funds from the organization for the time period beginning approximately in 2004 up until his death (September, 2010) in the amount of approximately $303,000. The organization, upon discovering the misappropriation, informed the Monmouth County prosecutor's office immediately. An independent forensic CPA firm was engaged and they determined the embezzled amount was $303,166. The prosecutor's office determined unequivocally that the deceased treasurer had acted alone.

The organization has made a concerted effort, since this discovery, of making sure existing procedures are followed and as well as adding additional checks and balances. Procedures include establishing an audit/oversight committee, requiring two signatures on all checks, obtaining written approvals on all expenditures, and presenting all expenses/payments to the membership at monthly meetings.

For training purposes and to provide a community service, the company will use personnel to operate tanker trucks for the purpose of providing water to fill swimming pools of township residents. The township residents pay a fee for this service. The company will be reviewing these costs to determine if a portion of the resident's payments are greater than the service provided and thereby representing a contribution, for which they would then be notified.
